

Whether you are renting, purchasing, letting or selling, you want to ensure you make the right move.

Which is why, as property professionals, we will listen to your needs in order to help you make the correct decision.

Before you get in touch though, listen to what some of our customers have said...

“For commercial property investors ... I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Simon’s services. I would describe his professional service ... as exceptional.”

Mr S Eccles - Landlord, Greenwich

“I would just like to express my thanks for all the help you have given us. After months of dealing with estate agents, I found Destinations to be the most honest, trustworthy, professional and efficient of all. You understood exactly what it was that I was looking for and in the end we could have taken any of the 4 properties that you showed us. We are ecstatic with the new flat and will hopefully spend many a happy year there.”

Mr R Eggar - Tenant, Greenwich

“I found the service they provided exemplary. The negotiator who took me to see properties was polite, good humoured and extremely good at negotiating with the vendor or the landlord when offers were made.”

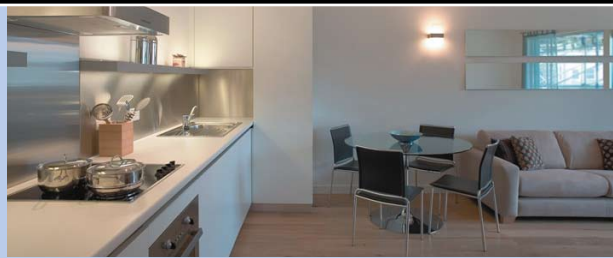

Ms L Bye - Tenant and Landlord, SE London

“I have recently moved flat with the assistance of Destinations London. As a foreigner with no experience of the letting market in London, I really appreciated the time and professionalism of the people at Destinations London. I have dealt with experienced people who quickly understood my expectations and provided critical help as well as advice all along the process. I fully recommend this agency for your next move.”

D. Pradines - Tenant, Greenwich (Citybanker)
