Welcome to 1872 at Elliotts

In 1872, George Elliott aged 28 married Miss Elisabeth May Decent and following a brief honeymoon, opened the Lymington Clothing Mart at 87 High Street on April 20th.

So began a family business that has continued to prosper for nearly 140 years and five different generations. From the first move to larger premises in 1890, through years of expansion, to the concentration on the sole Elliotts her in Lymington during the last twenty five years.

Each generation has had their own struggle to maintain the tradition and continuity. The priority has always been to embrace the latest methods and practices to enable the business to be regional leader in style and quality, while at the same time being proud of our history and heritage and maintaining our strong links with tradition and the local community.

Our restaurant '1872', we hope has this philosophy at its heart, incorporating the best in modern style while maintaining traditional standards of service which our predecessors would have been proud of.

We hope that you enjoy your visit to Elliotts and '1872' as much as we have creating it.

Please place your order with a member of staff at the counter and if there is anything that you would like that is not listed here, please let us know and we will do our very best to accommodate you.

*We do not serve fast food we serve fresh food as fast as we can.
